Course Description

This advanced course in Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) provides an in-depth exploration of behavior intervention strategies and their practical application in various settings. Designed for graduate students pursuing careers in ABA, the course emphasizes evidence-based techniques for modifying behavior in individuals with diverse needs, including those with developmental disabilities and behavioral excess. Topics include intervention based on assessment data, antecedent interventions, shaping new skills, group contingencies, self-management, and programming for generalization.

Prerequisites

SPCE 609 with a grade of B or better

Course Modality/Structure

This is an online asynchronous course. Students are expected to participate on course assignments and be active in the class throughout the week.

Please be advised that this is a very complex subject matter that requires a significant dedication of time. This is a rigorous course with extensive reading. This is a 3-hour class, which means a minimum of 9 to 10 hours per week should be dedicated to the course. Some weeks may require up to 20 hours. All the reading and materials to be reviewed must be completed early in the week assigned so that you can complete the required assignments. You are highly encouraged to attend weekly office hours with your instructor. Course expectations reflect those of a graduate level class. Graduate students are expected to actively participate in all course activities and complete assignments in a timely manner. You are expected to utilize all resources in a way that result in mastery and fluency with course materials and that will allow you to develop the skills necessary to provide appropriate supports as a behavior analyst in the future.

Program & Course Goals and Learning Outcomes

The primary learning objectives of the master's program focus on students gaining knowledge in the following areas of ABA and autism. Our course objectives align with the following programmatic objectives:

Program Learning Objectives (PLO)

- PLO-2 Apply the concepts of behavior analytic principles in applied settings
- PLO-5 Know the standards of professional practice and ensure the client's right to effective behavioral treatment in therapeutic environments that promote personal welfare and engender functional skills
- PLO-8 Demonstrate the ability to develop, implement, and monitor behavioral programs with a variety of populations (e.g., individuals with developmental delays, autism spectrum disorder, disruptive behavior disorders)
- PLO-10 Develop culturally informed intervention strategies, appreciate and acknowledge differences, and maintain clinical and professional skillsets that value diversity, equity, and inclusion
- PLO-11 Design and evaluate different behavior change procedures

Visit our program website to access our program and capstone handbooks!

This course serves to develop students' competence in the theoretical and conceptual foundations of behaviorism and predominant theories in verbal behavior. At the end of this course, the student will be able to:

Course Objectives (CO) aligned with Modules Learning Objectives

- C-01 Identify, describe, and design effective behavior interventions based on functional behavior assessment data that reduce challenging behaviors and promote replacement behavior or skill development.
- C-02 Design behavioral interventions that account for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) while also accounting for cultural parameters of the person-served.
- C-03 Research scientific literature for evidence-based interventions.
- C-04 Identify environmental accommodations that allow for success in the delivery and implementation of effective behavioral intervention.
- C-05 Identify, describe, and design plans for generalization and maintenance of behavior goals.

- C-06 Articulate appropriate conditions to utilize punishment procedures in the scope of behavioral intervention.

| Capstone Requirement Statement: To pass this course, students must complete all components of the Capstone Portfolio. Students who do not complete every component will receive a failing grade, regardless of their total points earned in the class. For students admitted in Fall 2025 and beyond, successful completion of the Capstone Project in each course is also a requirement for graduation. Please download and carefully the Capstone Project Student Handbook, which will provide all details and requirements.  |             |
| TOTAL   | 1045 |
| All items in green and labeled “Complete/Incomplete” are graded as complete/incomplete; all items in black font and labeled “Point-Based” are graded as point-based. The grading style of each assignment is stated in the table above. The description of each grading approach is summarized below: Complete/Incomplete assignments: For any assignment scored as Complete/Incomplete, if any part of that assignment is incomplete on the associated rubric, the assignment will be scored as incomplete. Canvas gives you a score of zero on assignments that are graded as incomplete – but don’t let that panic you! Once you resubmit and earn a ‘complete’ you will receive points via the rubric. If you receive an ‘incomplete’ on these assignments, you will be given the chance to revise your work until you have mastered the assignment. To avoid repeatedly having to revise your work, use antecedent and consequent-based strategies. Antecedent strategies include actively participating in office hours and/or the discussion forum, reviewing all the assignment details and creating your assignment checklist, and focusing on the detailed instructions that will support your knowledge acquisition. You have a maximum of 1 week from the day an assignment is marked as Incomplete to submit a revision and a maximum of 3 attempts unless otherwise specified by your instructor or in the assignment description. Point-based assignments: There are also points-based types of activities/assessments in this course, and there will be clear specifications as to how you earn points for these assignments. Your submission will be graded based on the points you earn only. Your instructor is unlikely to give you the opportunity to revise these assignments. |             |

Final grades are provided in line with the following scale:

| Grading Scale (percent of possible points) |            |            |
|--|------------|------------|
| A- = 90-93                                 | A = 94-100 |            |
| B- = 80-83                                 | B = 84-86  | B+ = 87-89 |
| C- = 70-73                                 | C = 74-76  | C+ = 77-79 |
| D- = 60-63                                 | D = 64-66  | D+ = 66-69 |

Note: Canvas does not round up when assigning letter grades, so a score of 93.98 is an A-. A grade of B (84+) is required to pass this course.

Assignments Subject to Change

Assignment details, including instructions, relevant readings, due dates, and grading criteria/rubrics will be posted and updated on Canvas and are subject to change to support the learning process. Please check Canvas regularly to stay informed and on track.

Ball State's Disability Services Office coordinates services for students with disabilities; documentation of a disability needs to be on file in that office before any accommodations can be provided. Disability Services can be contacted at 765-285-5293 or dsd@bsu.edu.

Freedom of Expression

In this course, we are committed to fostering a learning environment that values intellectual diversity, encourages free expression, and promotes open inquiry. As members of the Ball State Community, we treat each person in the Ball State community with civility, courtesy, compassion, and dignity and respect and learn from differences in people, ideas, and opinions. Please review Ball State University's Statement on Freedom of Expression, the resources on Ball State's Freedom of Expression webpage, and Ball State's Beneficence Pledge.

Attendance

Your regular participation and timeliness are important to your academic success. In online courses, this takes the form of participation in discussion via forums, chat, and other electronic means provided. As this is an online course, it is up to every student to stay on track and not fall behind. You must be self-motivated and disciplined to meet all due dates. Developing a routine is essential. All assignments are expected to be submitted by a specific time and date. Assignments submitted late may be subject to a reduction in points or no points at all. You may only submit assignments late with my permission.

Attendance in Ball State University online classes is measured by your active participation in course activities at least once each week. Be sure to complete your coursework as assigned to ensure you are recorded as attending the course. You must be constantly aware of the deadlines and meet those deadlines. This is NOT AN INDEPENDENT STUDY course, so you MUST work along at the pace set for the course. You may NOT work ahead. ALL due dates are ENFORCED.

Title IX

Ball State University is committed to providing a safe and inclusive learning environment for all students. If you or someone you know has experienced sexual harassment—including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, please know that you are not alone. The University offers support services and resources. For more information or to report an incident, please visit bsu.edu/titleix or contact the Title IX Coordinator at 765-285-1545 or at titleix@bsu.edu

As your instructor, I am a mandatory reporter under the Title IX policy and required to report any information I receive about possible sexual harassment. This includes information shared in class discussions, assignments, or private conversations.

What happens after I report? The Title IX Coordinator will email the person who experienced sexual harassment (complainant) and invite them to schedule a meeting. If the complainant chooses to meet with the Title IX Coordinator,

- Title IX Coordinator will offer supportive measures (e.g., counseling, extensions on deadlines, course-related adjustments, changes to work or class schedules, and/or referrals to campus offices), review the policy, and discuss options to move forward.
- If a complaint is filed by the complainant or the University, an investigation will begin following University policy.

University Grade Appeal Policy

If you believe you received a final course grade that does not reflect your performance due to fairness or a procedural issue, you have the right to file an appeal within 5 school days after final grades are posted by the Office of the Registrar. Review the University Grade Appeal Policy and Process.]

Student Academic Ethics Policy

Honesty, trust, and personal responsibility are fundamental attributes of the university community. Academic dishonesty and other forms of academic misconduct threaten the foundation of an institution dedicated to the pursuit of knowledge and will not be tolerated. To maintain its credibility and reputation, and to equitably assign evaluations of scholastic and creative performance, Ball State University is committed to maintaining a climate that upholds and values the highest standards of academic integrity. Visit the VPAA's academic integrity website (Students tab) for resources on understanding academic integrity, citing sources properly, and avoiding inadvertent academic dishonesty. To learn about BSU's academic integrity expectations and students' rights, please read the University Student Academic Ethics Policy.

Academic integrity violations include giving or receiving an unfair academic advantage (cheating), presenting someone else's ideas or work as your own (plagiarism), and falsifying academic records. Unless otherwise indicated, you must work independently by yourself. Check with me if you are unsure whether something constitutes academic dishonesty. Examples of academic integrity violations include but are not limited to:

- Using resources not authorized by the faculty member (including devices, AI tools, hidden notes, and open books)
- Using commercial study websites to find answers to graded assignments (Chegg, Course Hero, StudyPool, OneClass, etc.).
- Without the instructor's written permission, giving away, buying, or selling graded assignments class notes, exams, study guides, or other course materials to other students or to third-party vendors (Course Hero, Chegg, 24HourAnswers, etc.).

- Working with another person on any assignment other than authorized group projects.
- Sharing or allowing others to access your files, whether done with permission or not.
- Reusing your own work from another semester, course, or section.
- Sharing answers with others during exams (passing notes, texting, whispering, gesturing)
- Discussing exam questions and answers with students who have not taken the exam.
- Soliciting others to complete work for you.

Generative AI Statement

Artificial Intelligence (AI) can be a valuable academic tool when used ethically and responsibly. According to the Biggio Center (n.d.), AI users typically fall into four categories:

- The Enemy – avoids AI entirely, viewing it as a threat or inherently dishonest.
- The Tutor – uses AI to gain understanding, clarify concepts, or generate examples with caution and verification.
- The Assistant – uses AI as a support tool for tasks such as brainstorming, outlining, or proofreading, with significant oversight.
- The Proxy – relies on AI to complete tasks entirely, with minimal or no oversight, review, or original input.

In this course, the highest acceptable level of AI use is AI as a tutor. This means that all thinking, problem-solving, and writing must be your own work. AI may be used to clarify questions, explore examples, or help you structure your ideas, but it may not replace your intellectual contributions. Using AI in place of your own work, or failing to provide proper citation when AI is used in any capacity, constitutes a violation of academic integrity and will be treated as such in accordance with university policy.

Canvas and Student Privacy

Canvas Accessibility

Canvas provides a user experience that is easy, simple, and intuitive. Special attention has been paid to making Canvas screen-readable. The Rich Content Editor encourages users to create accessible content pages (i.e. text formatting is accomplished using styles). Canvas is designed to allow limited customization of colors and schemes to be accessible for all users. The National Federation of the Blind granted Canvas the Gold Level Web Certification in 2010.

Find more information by visiting the Canvas Voluntary Product Accessibility Template \(VPAT\).

FERPA and Privacy

As a student, your educational records are considered confidential. Under FERPA (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act), your records are confidential and protected. Under most circumstances, your records will not be released without your written and signed consent. However, some directory information may be released to third parties without your prior consent unless a written request to restrict this is on file. You can learn more about student rights to privacy by reading Ball State's FERPA and Privacy and Protection.

Video Conferencing Recording

In this class, software may be used to record live class discussions. As a student in this class, your participation in live class discussions may be recorded. These recordings typically will be made available only to students enrolled in the class, to assist those who cannot attend the live session or to serve as a resource for those who would like to review content that was presented. Students who prefer to participate via audio only will be allowed to disable their video camera so only audio will be captured. Students who prefer to listen only must disable their audio capability and visual camera. If you have concerns, please discuss these options with me.

Plagiarism Detection

The campus subscribes to Turnitin, a plagiarism prevention service, through Canvas. You may need to submit written assignments to Turnitin. Student work will be used for plagiarism detection and for no other purpose. The student may indicate in writing to the instructor that he/she refuses to participate in the plagiarism detection process, in which case the instructor can use other electronic means to verify the originality of their work.

Proctoring

This course will require the use of the Respondus LockDown Browser and Monitor for online exams. Watch this short video to get a basic understanding of LockDown Browser and the optional webcam feature (which may be required for some exams.) Instructions for obtaining the software can be found in our course.

Course Statements and Policies

Program Handbook:

Please download and read the Student Handbook and Program Policies document thoroughly to stay aware of program expectations, requirements, and other important information.

Participation Expectations

- Attendance in Ball State University online classes is measured by your active participation in course activities at least once each week; it is recommended that you log on to Canvas early in each week and check in 3-4 times throughout the course of the week.
- Be sure to complete your course work as assigned to ensure you are recorded as attending the course. For this class, timely submission of assignments, participation in the student discussion forum, and logging into the course materials in Canvas are ways in which we determine if a student is participating.
- Weekly participation in the form of logging into Canvas, writing in a forum, or submitting a written assignment is mandatory. All assignments should be completed by the due date. Students should not work ahead.
- University attendance policies can be reviewed at the following website: Vice Provost Student Services Attendance Policies

Feedback Policy

- Instructors strive to provide timely feedback within one week of each assignment's DUE DATE. For assignments with associated rubrics, feedback is given through the rubric, with additional comments in SpeedGrader at the instructor's discretion. For assignments without rubrics, feedback is provided directly in SpeedGrader. For quizzes, exams, and other auto-graded activities, you will see your score immediately after completion. A one-time review of incorrect responses is available to support your learning. If you need clarification on any item, contact your instructor. Many of the assignments in this course build on previous assignments. Therefore, it is important for you to carefully review your instructor's feedback.
- Your instructor will read every discussion post but will not always personally comment on posts in order to encourage peer engagement in the forums.
- Contact your instructor directly if you have questions or concerns about your performance in class.

Assignment Submission Policy

- All assignments should be submitted as Word documents with extensions of .doc or .docx or PDF documents with extensions of .pdf unless otherwise indicated in the assignment description.
- Assignments, unless otherwise indicated, should be submitted using the assignment link in the module.

Late Assignment Policy

- All assignments are due by 11:59pm EST/EDT time on the due dates indicated in the appropriate submission location on Canvas.
- Your instructor is under no obligation to accept a late submission for any assessment or assignment. If you contact them to request an extension before the deadline, it is their decision whether to provide the extension. They are permitted to deduct a penalty of one letter grade per day will apply if a late submission is accepted. If you exceed the time limit on exams, you will lose one point per minute past the submission deadline.
- Internet connectivity and technical issues may occur and impede you from turning in work on time. Turn in work early and often, and set up a back-up plan, such as visiting a local library or borrowing a peer's computer.
- Canvas will not accept assignments for grading after 11:59 pm on the final day of class.

Grading Policy

It is the course policy that appropriate evaluation of your academic performance is an integral part of your learning experience. In the absence of mistake, fraud, bad faith or incompetence, your instructor will be the key decision-maker on the assignment of grades. For information concerning grade appeals, consult the Ball State website.

Engagement Expectations

To support a respectful and engaging academic community that encourages the free exchange of ideas and civil discourse, we will follow these ground rules:

- Respect different perspectives. Share your ideas and let others share theirs.
- Challenge ideas, not people. Disagree respectfully. No personal attacks or put-downs. Focus on exploring ideas critically and constructively.
- Listen to understand. Stay curious, ask questions to understand, and give others space to speak.
- Assume good intentions. Approach discussions with curiosity and compassion.
- Keep it private. What is shared in class stays in class. Do not share others' words or work without permission.
- Be respectful. Avoid hurtful language, stereotypes, or content that may demean others. Keep feedback constructive.

Course Schedule

To support a learning experience that is responsive to the needs, interests, and pace of our class community, the course schedule may shift over the semester. The most current version of the schedule will always be available on Canvas. I encourage you to check Canvas regularly for updates and contact me if you have any questions.

Subject to Change Statement

This syllabus and schedule are subject to change in the event of extenuating circumstances.
